Miss CCTI

"Miss CCTI" for the 1976-77 school year is Donna Clayton. She is enrolled in Paralegal I. She was elected by a majority of votes of the student body to represent CCTI in events through the year. Donna graduated from Boone Trail High School and she is 18 years old. This is her first title and she represented CCTI at the Lee County Fair in Sanford. Donna enjoys listening to music, watching sports and designing ceramics.

The other candidates for "Miss CCTI" were Janice Clay; PNE, Becky Hawley; PNE, Frances Hornbuckle; Law Enforcement I, Brenda McNeill; College Transfer, Vanessa Murchison; Recreation, Debbie Raney; Vet. Med. II, Danette Walls; Accounting, Sally Warwick; RTV, and Earlene Wiley; Recreation.

To harmonize is to get along with others. And so harmony is the theme of the 1977 Cencoro.

Memories From

Steve Jones who plays for the St. Louis Cardinals spoke at last year's sports banquet.

The Past

Day '76

3 Inches of WHAT??!!

And Henny Penny said, "The sky is falling!"

The "Sanford Triangle," which is thought to be related to the mysterious Bermuda Triangle, is known for its' lack of snow. On the 24th doy of January, in the year 1977, 3 phenomenal feats took place right here in Sanford:

1. It snowed
2. It snowed three inches
3. It snowed three inches and school was dimissed early.

A 4th phenomenon occurred on January 25th, 1977. The snow left.

Circle K

Circle K is concerned with helping others. Many members worked with the Bloodmobile at CCTI, but their activities also affected many beyond the CCTI campus. During the Thanksgiving holidays, Circle K visited the residents of the Convalescent Care Center in Colon. A party was given for the children at the Lee County Children's Home over the Christmas holidays. The group is planning to have a community babysitting service every Saturday morning after the New Year. Some members plan to attend the State Convention of Circle K in Raleigh during March.

Tradition has always set aside a page for the Cencaro staff and this year's staff deserves as much credit as anything else in this book. The '77 Cencaro staff was small, but we were dedicated, willing and determined. We were faced with late pictures, meeting deadlines, retakes, designing our awn cover and thousands of other complications but for CCTI we produced a yearbook that we are very praud of.

With most sincere feelings and much gratitude I would like to thank the 1977 Cencaro staff and all thase that made this possible.

Thank yau, Sandra, withaut yaur pictures we would have been last. You were always there to do anything.

Thank you, Edith, yau did a fine jab as business manager and yau were always willing ta help.

Lou, ads are an impartant part of a yearbook and yau handled them well, thanks.

Thank you, Cathy, the curriculums and copy show your hard wark and dedication.

Ta Vicky and Al, many thanks for all your ideas that gat us started.

Thank you, Mr. Epley, for being interested and helping when we needed you.

Mr. Galdston, thank you very much far being available to answer any questian and salve any problem.

And last, but one of the most impartant, thank you Mrs. Thamas for putting us on aur awn and putting so much trust in us.

The 1977 Rambling Centaur Staff

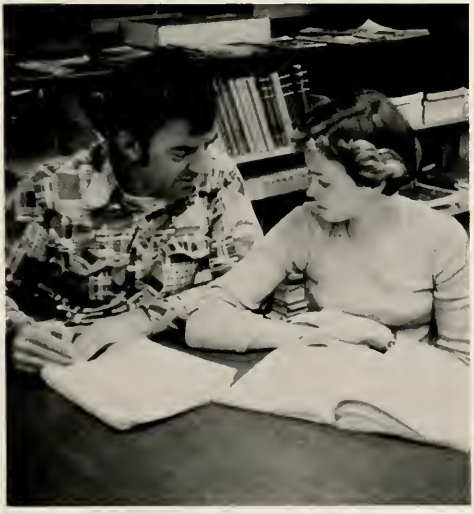
Claudia Pierce, Editor

Claudia Pierce and Sue Nall, Editor and Co-Editor respectively, wrote the articles, typed the articles, ran off the paper and distributed the paper themselves.

Covers were designed monthly by Claudia. Terry Sneeden designed and contributed the Rambling Centaur Centurion cover which was used periodically throughout the year.

The newspaper was published on a bi-monthly basis. Curriculum feature articles, SGA minutes, and other miscellaneous poems and articles were periodically contributed by students.

Sue Nall, Co-Editor



In the year 1976,
Two people got into a fix.
It was the Rambling Centaur
That took them running near and far.
Now that 1977 is here,
We need a new editor for the year.
Anyone brave and inspiring,
Come see Mrs. Thomas inquiring.

We started the year with high ideas,
The year dragged on and each went fizz.
Trash and litter were strewn on the floor,
We worked and worked and worked some more.
Days became nights and nights became days,
And here on this table our work still lays.
The final deadline at last drew nigh,
And unfortunately, it passed us by.
Our annual was late for publication,
Now we faced hellfire and damnation.
Mrs. Thomas ranted and Mrs. Thomas raved,
We each broke our backs as over the work we slaved.
Our willpower shrank and our energy diminished,
But the 1977 Cencaro was finally finished.
Mrs. Thomas could no longer yell,
We'd put the annual in the mail.
In April, Hunter Publishing returned it, signed, sealed, and delivered,
As we gave out the copies, each staff member quivered.
"Will they like it?" we whispered, as each student received one,
We sure hope you did, 'cause this one's not to be outdone.
We hope that you'll look at it and remember this year,
The good times and bad and all memories held dear.
